

PRESS RELEASE

Independent Day School to Host Professional Chamber Music Concert

For immediate release: January 20, 2004

Tampa, Florida

Independent Day School - Corbett Campus (IDS-CC) in Tampa will host a classical chamber music concert on Sunday, Jan. 25 at 3:00 p.m. The program will feature professional musicians from some of Florida's finest orchestras. The concert, "A Trio of Trios," is open to the public. Tickets are $5.00 and are available by calling the school at 961-3087, or at the door.

The program is part of the school's Reflections concert series — family-friendly chamber music concerts designed to appeal to children and adults alike. The programs are approximately one hour in length, and are presented in the intimate setting of the IDS-CC theater on Lake Lipsey.

The upcoming performance will feature musicians from the Florida Orchestra and the Southwest Florida Symphony, as well as other area professionals, who will be playing the violin, clarinet, bassoon, and piano. They will present Contrasts by Hungarian composer Bela Bartok; Trio Pathetique by Russian composer Mikhail Glinka; and Largo by American composer Charles Ives.

"We are delighted with the success of this concert series, which is now in its third season," said Tom McColley, IDS music teacher. "IDS is unique in this area in providing classical musical performances. We're excited to be a center for culture and education for the community."
