

PRESS RELEASE

Discover Your Creative Genius At The Community School of the Arts

For immediate release: March 4, 2009

Tampa, Fla.

Play your way through the dynamic curriculum that includes Music, Drama, Art, and Dance at The Community School of the Arts.

Utilizing the best traditions available, as well as the latest technology, both children and adults will develop creativity, self-confidence, self-discipline, perseverance, and a positive work ethic through pride in a job well done.

Research shows innumerable benefits for children and adults. Students of the arts have demonstrated improved brain function, stronger problem solving and critical thinking skills, and for those taking them, higher standardized test scores! Best of all, you will make lasting connections within the community as you experience the sheer joy of the performing arts at The Community School of the Arts. Open to the entire Tampa Bay community; located at Independent Day School-Corbett Campus on Orange Grove Drive in Carrollwood.
