The Community School of the Arts To Feature Talented Students In Moby Dick, the Musical

Tampa, FL –April 6, 2010— The Community School of the Arts is currently in rehearsal for its spring production, Moby Dick, the Musical.

St. Godley's school for young...ahh...ladies?...is in danger of closing. So they put on a musical version of Moby Dick to raise money to save their school. With a headmistress played by a man in drag starring as Captain Ahab, and a cast that will do "whatever it takes", will the school make enough money to stay afloat?

Featuring some of the most talented students from all around the Tampa Bay area, you are invited to Independent Day School-Corbett Campus for a hilarious musical comedy, featuring amazing voices, tremendous stage presence, and a truly unexpected evening of theatre, guaranteed to be enjoyed by all.

There are 2 separate casts of performers rehearsing for this show. A Youth Cast comprised of Middle School and Elementary School students as well as a High School Cast.

The Youth Cast is performing a G rated version of the show in which all are welcome to attend while the High School Cast is performing a PG-13 rated version of the show.

The Community School of the Arts is known for its outstanding programs in music, dance, art and theatre. Past theatrical productions include High School Musical, Seussical and Pippin.
