12015 Orange Grove Drive, Tampa

The AristoCats Kids is under the direction of IDS music teacher Michael LeBlanc and features more than 55 students.

“I selected this version of The AristoCats Kids because it’s a terrific adaptation of the classic film that showcases young performers,” said LeBlanc. “In addition, it provides a great opportunity for a young audience to enjoy a wonderful Broadway-style performance.”

The Warriors’ Pride chorus is one of many opportunities students at Independent Day School have to explore music. All students participate in musical activities twice a week while learning music fundamentals and exploring music of many cultures and historical periods. Students who choose to take their musical experience to more advanced levels, can join the Warriors’ Pride Chorus (fourth and fifth grades), The Spirit of IDS Chorus (third grade), Middle School Musical Theatre (sixth through eighth grades), or Beginning and Advanced Bands (fifth through eighth grades).

The Warriors’ Pride performance of The AristoCats Kids is approximately 45 minutes in length. The general public is welcome. Tickets are $5 and are available at the door or by calling the school at (813) 961-3087. The Farish Center is wheelchair accessible, and there is plenty of parking for all.
